Teresa, Andy and family, We lived next door to your Mom and Dad when they lived on Alameda. Andy was just a little guy. Ed and I were newly married and so enjoyed being their neighbors. They were the best neighbors. I remember Sue making her candy for Andy at Christmas. My oldest two boys were born while we were living next to them, it was like having grandparents right next door. Life took us away from Iowa Park but your Mom and Dad made a trip to Arkansas to see us. We were so glad to see them.

I am saddened by the loss of both of your parents but rejoice knowing they are reunited together. I am so glad they were able to be with your family these last several years.

Praying for you and your families. Much love, Ed and Malinda Shown and family.
